1.1 OVERVIEW

Bulletproof is looking for an experienced Information Security Consultant with responsibility for delivering the Bulletproof portfolio of compliance consultancy services. This will include responsibility for assuring the planning, management, co-ordination and financial control of projects.

You will have the opportunity to deliver information security-related assessments to a variety of clients across a wide range of industries. This is an exciting opportunity to work on unique projects to help businesses protect themselves by better managing their information risk based on best practice and by meeting their regulatory and legal obligations.

You will be joining a rapidly growing team who are continually striving to out-perform their previous achievement. In this role you will need a flexible approach and to be comfortable in the knowledge that the responsibilities of this role constantly evolve as the company continues to grow and expand the services it provides.

1.2 RESPONSIBILITIES

- Deliver assignments as allocated by the Bulletproof Managing Consultant and Project Co-ordinator.
- Take full responsibility for delivery of assigned compliance related projects, such as PCI DSS, ISO 27001, Cyber Essentials, GDPR.
- Ensure that realistic project plans or timetables are maintained and ensure regular and accurate communication to stakeholders and provide oral guidance and best practice, as well as creative solutions to client problems.
- Provide well-written and concise technical and non-technical reports, prepared to the highest standards of written English.
- Ensure timely communication with all stakeholders within the client organisations and Bulletproof so that the clients (in particular) are fully aware of the progress made.
- Communicate remaining actions with responsibilities assigned correctly to the customer and Bulletproof as agreed with client.
- Take part in a variety of other information security projects as and when required.
- Manage internal Bulletproof procedure from commencement to conclusion and ensure that project deliverables are completed within agreed cost, timescale, resourcing and budgets.
- Provide timely information to ensure project calendars can be managed for the whole team including holiday tracking.

- Support various client-pre-engagement interactions including scoping activities, proposal drafting and accompanying sales teams during client site visits, as needed.
- Liaise between internal departments to ensure contract start dates are adhered to on retainer based or recurring contracts.
- Share knowledge and provide support to other team members.
- Travel to client sites as required.
- Act as a point of contact and communicate with all relevant stakeholder.
- Participate in and support Bulletproof's information security certification projects as required.

1.3 BENEFITS

- 25 days' annual holiday
- An additional day's annual holiday for your birthday
- Company pension
- Private medical insurance
- Subsidised gym membership
- Perkbox employee benefits platform
- Frequent team events
- Relaxed working environment

2. CANDIDATE EXPECTATIONS

2.1 ATTRIBUTES

If you are or have been an experienced PCI-QSA (or similar) then we want to hear from you. You must be able to demonstrate strong communications skills and be comfortable with providing advice on information security matters, and have an easy going and approachable manner whilst maintaining a professional outlook. You will have the ability to assist with scoping clients' compliance projects to ensure a cost-effective solution for the client. You will have delivered multiple projects within budget and timeframe constraints.

We are looking for proactive individuals who demonstrate a strong belief in continuous personal and professional development. The ability to plan, oversee and manage your own workload is essential in this position. This is a great opportunity for an individual who is looking for a role with responsibility and who is willing to learn and grow not only with the project but also with the company.
